

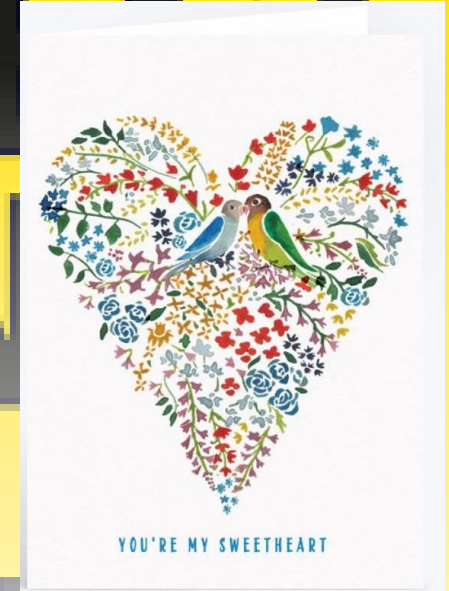

Graphic Communication

Printed below are the 100 random words

Taking bits from Art, Photography and Design Technology.

Create the images, experiment, develop the ideas and turn it into something useful and creative.

1. Photo

2. Artistic version

3. Do something with it

Why choose Graphic Communication?

Allows you to take the bits from art, photography and Design Technology to produce creative outcomes.

You enjoyed doing the graphics project in KS3.

You are creative

Freedom to tailor your projects to your interests.

You enjoy producing creative outcomes, but might not like being in the workshop

Able to explore wide range of skills and media.

All local Colleges run courses that build from this GCSE

There are hundreds of jobs linked to Graphic Communication in a huge variety of industries.

You are willing to put the time and effort in to succeed.

No final written exam

Graphic Communication

